Nevertheires the 19-year-old youth did the illustrated song act in the opera house.

This was about the time waen the picture bouses, better known then as the nickelodeous, were striving to get a footbold in the entertalament world. The mestrated song acte, which have lately been revited, were popular since they brought a slight touch of the Irgitimate stage to the new screen entertainments. Enters New Fields

Switcher stayed at the opera house for two sentons. One of his songs was "No One Knows." an old favorite made popular by Walter Sherwood of Al G. Fields minstrels. After leaving the opera house Swisher sang in other Marion picture houses, later going to Columbus, Cincinnati and other cities.

For several years Swinber did illustrated song acts in picture houses. Then came his big chance. John Vogle's minstrels called bim. To Swisher, who had never taken a music lesson in his life, this was as great a thrill as a chance on Brondway is to present-day stage (olk.

Swisher's days as a protessional singer ended when he lett the minstrels. Since joining the city fire department 12 years ago his singing has been compared to choir work and solos in the Trinity church. Early in January he made his first radio appearance in the studies, of station WAIU. This was with the Tripity men's quartet. He also did several solo numbers. He was asked to return and about three weeks ago sang agala from the same station.

Not Trained in Music Swisher has never taken a musie lesson. His voice, however. is said by vocal teachers, to have exceptional quality. Being stightly higher than a deep bass his volce is sometimes rated as a bass-baritone. The present-day jozz muste makes little appeal to tiwisher. He prefers the old music. *

Council Delays Action on Important Projects

Two pending matters of importance expected to be reported on at last night's meeting of city council were not taken into consideration by that body, at least not in the open council chamber. When the street and alley com-

The street and alloy committee now has in its bands pending legis-

Another subject which has not ye been brought before council is a light franchise to replace the franchise of the C. D. & M. Electric Co., which expired on Jap. 31 this year The committee in charge of this franchise is gathering information on the franchise and is expected to

The Mentalities of Criminals.

What are referred to in a diseatch from Detroit as "startling results" were disclosed a day or two ago from the bench of the recorder's court up there by Judge Thomas M. Colter, who, with the cooperation of a psychopathic clinic, has been engaged for three months in an examination of the mentalities or 100 convicted felous.

The hundred felons, eighty-five men and fifteen women, fifty-five of them white and forty-five colored, were chosen hapharzard for examination without regard to age, sex or condition. Only three of the hundred, the judge announced, were without some material mental defect. Two were held definitely insane, thirty-three were found to be feebleminded, twenty-five were of inferior intelligence and the remaining thirty-seven manifested "deviations in personality." Seventythree were declared poor community risks. Of these impresonment was recommended for seventy-one and hospitalization for the other iwo. The scientists pronounced diffeen of the felons "reasonably good community risks," and acting on the conclusions of the scientists, Judge Cotter placed the fifteen on probation. So much for the dispatch save the "startling results." Why should such an outcome be held startling? The only really surprising disclosure was that three of the hundred are mentally normal. Now, had ninety-seven been found to possess normal mentalities that would have been really startling. As a rule, folons are not mentally normal. It's the rarely exceptional man or woman who is mentally normal who becomes a felon. The hundred examined were convicted of a variety of felonies, but robbery while armed led all the others, yet afteen of the hundred. the fifteen premounced "reasonably good community risks, were put on probation. It would be interesting to know why. And there is another "why" which obtrudes. Why are the feeble-minded and mentally unfit permitted to marry and propagate more feeble-minded and mentally untit to become monuces to life and property and, if committed to public institutions, whether to prisons, asylums or homes, drains upon the public narse?

The Haitian Commission.

In the event that the personnel of Presidept Hoover's fizitian commission is not augmented by the addition of a member from each of the houses of congress-and it may be said in this connection that the president has been quoted as saying that he was conferring with members of the senate and house. but that there was some disinclination on their part to serve-the commission will be made up of W. Cameron Forbes, of Massachusetts, who has been selected as the chairman: Henry P. Pietcher, of Pennsylvania; Elle Vezina, of Rhode Island; James Kerney, of New Jersey, and William Allen White, of Kanyay, and will depart for Haitl the latter part of next neek or early in the week there-

Dr. Robert R. Moion, president of Tuskegee institute, will accompany the commission to make an exhaustive investigation into Halti's educational avaiem, looking to recommendations for the future, but his invertigation will be independent of that of the commission. The president, some time since, stated that it was his purpose to name a body composed. of men of anidased minds who would work out in broad vision the "sequence and positive steps which will lead to the liquidation of our responsibilities and at the same time Walter Chrysler says "we are prosperous assure stable government in Halti" following the withdrawal of our marines. Looking over the membership, it is easy to believe that they measure up to the president's apectscation for openmindedness and will prove equal to the task he has committed to them. Mr. Forbes, a Harvard graduate, a member of a prominent Boston firm, was a member of the Philippine commission and secretary of commerce and police in the islands from 1904 to 1908; vice governor in 1908 and 1909 and governor general from 1999. to 1913. He was also a member of the Wood-Forbes Philippine commission of 1921. Mr. Fletcher has served the country with distinction as under secretary of state and as ambassador to Chile; Mexico, Belgium and Rome. He served as chaltman of our delegation to the fifth Pan-American conference in 1923, was a delegate to the sixth conference in Havana two Years ago, accompanled Mr. Hoover on the latter's good will trip to Latin America and is now a member of the commission seeking to settle the Honduran-Guatemalan boundary dispute. Mr. Vezina, a Canadian by birth, who came to the United States when nineteen years of ageand entered the newspaper business, has long been a student of Haltlan affairs. Mr. Kerney, well known through his affiliation with the Wilson administration, who represented the Greet committee on public information abroad during the World war, long identified with the Times, of Trenton, New Jersey, as reporter, editor and finally publisher, is an author and magazine writer, and Mr. White, a personal friend of the president, is known laraco to be hissed and boord. Somebody in Chicago has been reading the his- kid. tory of the time when that city was a struggling community and the settlers of that region, as lot, 'ag it?' well as all parts of the then Wild West, had to resort to vigilantes to suppress their criminal elements.
